

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Editorial | v |
| SECTION 1 – ACADEMIC CONTRIBUTIONS | |
| Tracing trails: implications of tax information exchange programs for customs administrations | |
| Chang-Ryung Han and Rachel McGauran | 3 |
| Combating illicit trade and transnational smuggling: key challenges for customs and border control agencies | |
| Gautam Basu | 15 |
| Old wine in new skins: analysis of the Trade Facilitation Agreement vis-à-vis the Revised Kyoto Convention | |
| Hans-Michael Wolfgang and Edward Kafeero | 27 |
| Improving Australian border enforcement of IPR by referring to the Chinese experience | |
| Min Li | 39 |
| Improving cooperation between customs and environmental agencies to prevent illegal transboundary shipments of hazardous waste | |
| David C Dill and Deborah A Kopsick | 47 |
| SECTION 2 – PRACTITIONER CONTRIBUTIONS | |
| Geospatial intelligence: Can Customs learn from the policing perspective? | |
| John de Belle | 65 |
| Import value de minimis level in selected economies as cause of undervaluation of imported goods | |
| Steven Pope, Cezary Sowiński and Ives Taelman | 75 |
| SECTION 3 – SPECIAL REPORTS | |
| Inaugural INCU Global Conference, 21-23 May 2014, Baku, Republic of Azerbaijan: Opening address | |
| His Excellency Ambassador Roberto Azevêdo, Director-General, World Trade Organization | 93 |
| Baku Resolution | |
| International Network of Customs Universities | 95 |
| Lines and flows: the beginning and end of borders: Addendum I | |
| Assistant Secretary Alan D Bersin, US Department of Homeland Security | 97 |
| SECTION 4 – REFERENCE MATERIAL | |
| Guidelines for Contributors | 103 |
| Editorial Board | 104 |